

PHSE: Identity - What makes you, you?

These are words people might use to describe themselves:

thoughtful, caring, happy, organised, sporty, kind, helpful, friendly, motivated, generous, positive, loud, hard-working, calm, popular, organised, funny, quiet, imaginative, scatter-brained, complicated, clever, enthusiastic, arty, creative, hard-working, calm, popular

How do you see yourself?

BACK NEXT

Moana is brave, adventurous, determined, a voyager and a leader.

Moana discovers her identity throughout the film. At the start she doesn't really know who she is. She does not feel happy simply staying on the island like her parents want her to. By the end of the film, she leads her tribe to other islands and restores their identity as voyagers.

MOANA

Moana

Maui

Te Fiti

Moana's grandma
Tala

Moana's father
Chief Tui

Moana's mother
Sina

PHSE focus - Identity

Science: Everyday materials

Wood

glass

rubber

paper

cardboard

metal plastic brick rock

How do they change if you squash, bend, twist or stretch them?

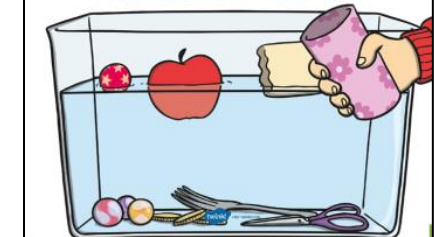

A hero's journey:

Moana sets off on a special journey to return the Heart of Te Fiti and restore her island's fish supplies.

Design and Technology: Design a new boat for Moana

Float or Sink?

Design a floating, sturdy, balanced boat for Moana to sail to Te Fiti and restore the Heart.